6.Old Business:

A. Rain Garden Plans: Trevor went over the sketch /plan for the rain garden in detail providing locations and designations for each plant. He will be providing us another version with more specific designations of types of plants that DCNR may want as part of the grant documentation. Trevor is doing this because his family loves our park; we owe him a big thanks. Cost of the plants estimated to be around $1,000; we will need to schedule a planting date, hopefully early to mid-May.

B. Kite Day: April 22, 2023 from 10:00am- 2:00pm. John put out signs and it is on the TWP marquis; just sent a note to be run in the Community Calendar of the Gburg Times. Please share the flyer and try to get widest dissemination. Can you bring the following on Kite Day:

Terry - water and napkins

Rob - chips, sound (we talked about having music?)

Matt - 48 hot dog buns

John - 48 hot dogs and aluminum sheets

Should we boil or grill the dogs? Did we grill them last year?

We will probably start setting up around 8:30 or 9 on the 22nd; lets keep in touch.

C. Park Sign: Regarding the sign, the majority favors keeping our existing image. The question remains if we should have some additional wording. John would like to suggest that we have a "Welcome to"...at the top of the sign and our website or Facebook page at the bottom of the sign in case anyone wants to inquire about the Park. Let John know so we can finalize the order, please.
